Directed by Fishing Cactus & Atomic Turtle Available on Google Playstore

With your touchpad [lent at the Museum reception], get directly in the virtual universe of Renaissance 2.0 for a Journey through the origins of the Web!

Young people opinion!

This game is funny, we can easily to be addicted to it and become maniac in some cases!

Guide the miniature globe, Mundaneum symbol, through different worlds representing themes of the exhibition. Attention: Only your agility will save you! The touchpad handles as a gyroscope...

The journey becomes into a circular room where 6 doors are represented, symbols of 6 worlds in the exhibition. In each world, you have to pursue a quest of knowledge. How to succeed? It is very simple: you have to fulfill two missions in collecting some objects in relation with the world which you are evaluating.

Playful, innovative, discover a new way to learn in a museum environment with the « Mundaneum » Serious Game!
